Patriot Pride

Capturing the life of a Patriot!!!!

Attending Southwest is a very fun, learning experience. It gives you the opportunity to meet and interact with people from different walks of life. Our school is a family-oriented school. We argue and we may even fight, but in the end you always know your fellow Patriot is going to have your back. A pride that comes from within, and what we know to be Patriot Pride. The people at Southwest are hilarious, after all you have the "Pretty Boy Clique" formerly known as "P.B.C", athletes, "self proclaimed" quiet folks, thugs, class clowns, and the list goes on, but however when all of those different personalities come together it creates an impulse that rushes through your body, like a quarterback with an open field ahead and no defenders in sight. A family that "LEARNS Together, EXCELS Together."

Catch That Patriot Pride 2004-2005!

Southwest Success

Nicholas Collins

State Representative Related Vocational Instruction (RVI)

Nicholas Collins, a super senior senior, was selected by the Georgia RVI Executive Board to represent Region II at the annual vocational instruction conference. During this event, the students will preside over the state conference that comprises of 800 plus students from across the state. Nicholas has attended leadership training workshops to assist him in preparing for presentations and other official roles he will engage in during the conference. The state conference will be held in May on Jekyll Island. We want to congratulate this wonderful patriot for receiving this incredible honor.

Cleveland Meriweather

Macon Telegraph
Teen Board

Twenty-one students were chosen to serve on the Macon Telegraph Teen Board and one of our patriots, Cleveland Merriweather. Merriweather has describes his experiences as beneficial and exciting. Cleveland learned life long tools that are pertinent to his success as a writer.

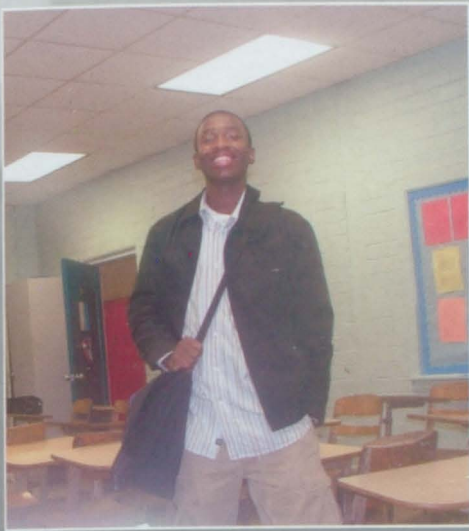

Jameicia Jordan

Superintendent Student Advisory Council

Jameicia was chosen out of seven hundred students to serve on the Superintendent Advisory. Only fifty one students are chosen from across the state. State Superintendent Kathy Cox, selects students each year to serve on the council. The purpose of this council is to address educational concerns of students in Georgia and provide possible solutions. Jameicia has displayed outstanding character upholding the tradition of Southwest Success.

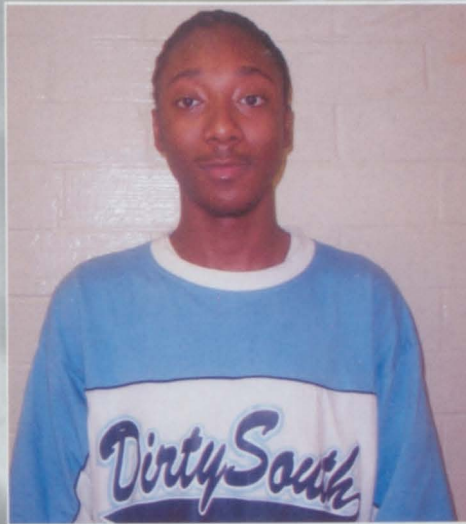

Whatever It Takes!!!

Danny Glover

Georgia Boys State Representatives

Danny Glover is one of the ten bright est young men to have the pleasure of attending Boy's State . Boy's State is among the most respected and selective educational programs of government instruction for high school students. It is a participatory program where each participant becomes a part of the operation of his local, county, and state government. At Boys State, participants are exposed to the rights, privilege, duties, and the responsibilities of a franchised citizen. The training is objective and practical with city, county, and state governments. With these operations, students are elected to the various governmental offices.

Randy Battle

American Legion Voice of Democracy Contest

Randy Battle received a ten thousand dollar scholarship for his winning essay "What a Veteran Means To Me". Randy contributes part of his success to the instruction he received from his English instructor. He was presented with a certificate of honor from the Lady's Auxillary Association. Randy, a junior, will receive his check upon his graduation.

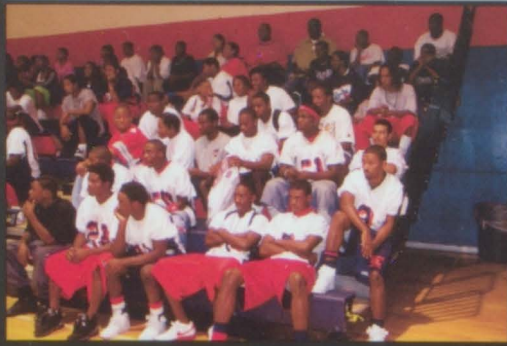

Hilary Moore

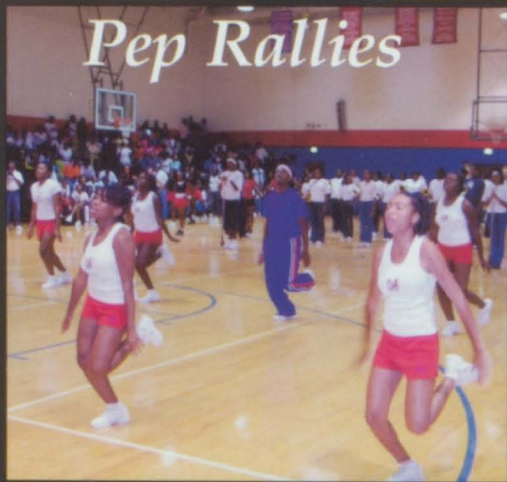

National Youth Leadership Fourm

Hilary Moore, a junior here at Southwest Magnet High School and Law Academy High School enrolled in the National Leadership Forum on Medicine. Moore went to Atlanta, Georgia this past summer and was joined by 350 other high school students from around the country. These students are accepted based on their academic excellence, leadership potential and a possible career in medicine.

HOMECOMING

2004!!!

LtoR: Angel Wilder, Antionette Brown, Monique Garey, Lashonda Barbee, Tiera Whitehead, Antonio Ford, Darius Robinson, George Henry

Red, white and blue adorned the halls of all three buildings. Red representing the passion of our blood as it bleeds patriotism. White represents the sincerity and purity of our patriotism. Blue represents the emotions and feelings of a patriot who does not participate in this soul stirring event. Students rushing down the hallways with fervent excitement. This could only mean one thing.....HOMECOMING week has finally arrived. Where else could you see students dressed in spirited attire. We celebrated everything that high school students should, all the fun things such as Tacky Day, Decades Day and culminating with Spirit Day. While we enjoyed the fun side of homecoming a true Patriot never forgets the purpose of an education. Picture this a perfect picture of the year 2009 only in reality it's 2004. Those who don't know us are amazed when they enter our doors for they are inundated with the sights of doctors, lawyers, nurses, professional athletes, and yes educators. We used career day to pay homage to our teachers and parents to show who we are, what we have struggled to complete and what we hopefully one day will become. Go Patriots.....

>> CALL IT IN THE AIR!

Marcus Brooks and Brutis Searcy call the opening coin toss.

>> PATRIOT AWAITING TO PULVERIZE THE MARY PERSONS BULLDOGS!

The Patriot football team break set out to demolish the Mary Persons Bulldogs.

HOMECOMING

On October 8, 2004, the Southwest Homecoming was held at Henderson Stadium. Southwest was pitted against emerging rivals, Mary Persons. Even though we suffered a sad defeat we were still able to witness some incredible wins on the Homecoming Court. The homecoming court was led by Ashley Wilborn and Demontae Oliver. The representatives for the Freshmen Class were Carlton Maxwell and Destinie Johnson. The representatives for the Sophomore Class were Sammeria Sanders and Zerrick Davis. Representing the Junior Class were Tomesha Wilder and Darius Boone. Representing the Senior Class nominee for Mr. Southwest was William Bridges and Demontae Oliver and Courtney Stephens and Ashley Wilborn.

>> COACH LET ME STAY IN?

Edward Adside argues with Coach Macon about why he should stay in the game.

>> READY BREAK

Defense, Defense, Defense

>> SEINORS TAKE THE FEILD

Senior Captains line up for what will be their last Southwest Homecoming game.

>> BAND HORNS UP!

Cleveland Merriwether prepares the band for the Homecoming pre-game show!

>> STOOD UP AT THE LINE!!!!

Edward Adside gets bulldozed by two Mary Persons Bulldogs.

"Homecoming, in my opinion, is the most spirited time of the year. I really enjoy seeing all of the graduates come back and reminisce on their high school memories."

>> EVIN MITCHELL

>> HEY GIVE ME MY WATER BOTTLE!

I bet you want take it Lewis Goodwin.

>> THESE BOYS ARE PLAYING HARD!

Coach Powe and Coach Harris walk off the field discussing game time strategies.

>> READY COACH!

Reginald Meadows awaits for Coach Tommy Macon to put him back in the game

CORY'S JORDAN'S (C-HUB)

Well being a Senior has being the "Trillest" time of my life. I have enjoyed the Faculty, Staff. and sometimes the Students, but overall I would change anything about my Senior year.

PRESCIOUS EDMONDS

To my fellow Seniors I would like to say "Do your best and you will have no choice but to expect the best"

Good Luck

SAMILLA BRIGGS

Being a Senior has been a privilege and a honor. Although, it can be stressful at times, but if you have played your cards right you will win the game.

CIERA KING

Becoming a Senior is very anticipating, and if you have served previous years correctly, it is a very laid back and comfortable position. So as a Freshmen, Sophomore, and Junior, you should be on top of you game so you can enjoy the advantages and opportunity of being a Senior.

BRITTANY WILDER

Being a Senior has made me a better person. It makes me feel very mature.

JOCELYN DUMAS

To be known as a "Super Senior", it is an acheivment stating that I have mastered the skills it takes to go into the "Real World"

Benjamin Lamar Brown

Being a Senior this year ahs really alloed me to advance musically and most importantly educationally.

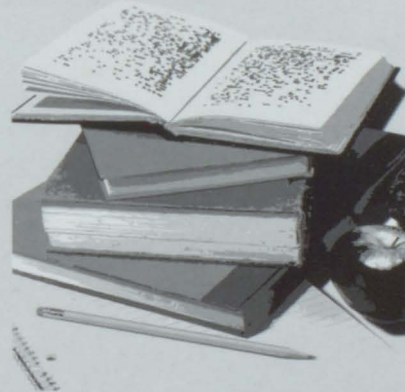

Jarvis "J-Flame" Hill

Failure is often an option, Sucess is Manditory

Being a Senior is a rewarding and enjoyable opportunity. There are many things to be learned, as a Senior. Just remember to follow your heart and do anything possible to graduate.

Last Will And Testaments

I, Ashley Ann Wilborn, leave to the band the ability to always show up and show out. To Kiera Brown I leave you my Sweetheart Formation Crown. You deserve it. Keep up the hard work! To Lyrante Danielle, I leave you my homecoming crown (Good Luck Girl!). To Danny Glover and the class of 2006 I leave you all the ability to work hard and stay focused. To Destinie Johnson I leave you my ability to get along with others and keep a smile on your face even through tough situations.

I, Ashley Cornelius, leave to Kelecia Perkins my ability to get along with others, always walk with your head held high no matter what people say or do to try to bring you down, and to always keep a positive attitude about everything you do. I also leave to Erin Mitchell, the ability to be yourself and brush haters off your back.

I, Trayana "Tyi" Ahse Greene, leave to Ashleigh Hodges my ability to dance and to be successful at whatever I put my mind to also to Terrick Davis "Lil Z" the ability to brush these haters off and be yourself. I also leave to Tomeka Roberts the ability to keep her head high no matter what goes down.

I, Shambria Denise Richardson, leave to my brothers, Antwan and Marco, my ability to survive through high school. I know it is getting hard but you can make it to graduation day, I did. I also leave to new mothers some advice, do not stop your education because these boys or because of your baby. Try to do it for you child so they will want to do the same. It will not be easy, trust me, but you can do it, just believe in yourself.

I, Courtney Stephens, leave to my sister Brittany Stephens and brother Marcus Stephens my ability to make good grades, get along with others, and stay out of trouble. I leave to the majorette squad my captain's position and my ability to have fun at games no matter what. To everyone else keep your head up, stay in them books, and enjoy your high school years.

I, Carolyn LaMaudie Mitchell (black, beautiful, and intelligent), leave to my two cousins and the future valedictorians to achieve their goals no matter how big or small. I leave to the whole student body the ability to not get pregnant and to get anyone pregnant, especially my two cousins because you at least want to graduate from high school.

I, Precious Shardae Nelson, leave my family, Desmond Hopkins, my ability to be a good leader and the ability lead our drummers to the top. To Lyrante Danielle, my ability to be a good captain and not be soft when it is time to get down to business. To Shay Winbush, I leave my ability to believe yourself and not to let anyone change you all. To Justin Dumas I leave my ability to be good at everything you do. I love ya'll. Have a good year.

I, Samantha Stuart Murray, leave my feed, the Samantha Foundation, to Wangelia B., Natalie B., Lamoysha W., Julesa T., Taleda J., Littlea B., Angelica F., Jarone M., Antonio L., Kimberly M., and Regina B. I leave my humor to Antonio Bell and Willie McAdams. I leave to Rashad L., Salome B., Hilary M., and James B. my ability to graduate on time. And to the Philharmonic Society, I give my permission to get on Mr. Mills nerves as well as keep up our good reputation.

I, Jerry Maurice Williams, leave Terrick "Z" Davis my cute looks and will to try hard at everything. I leave to Desmond Hopkins all physical talent and strong mental state of mind. Last I leave to Tumyra Byron my will to learn new things and my heart.

To the family that I leave behind, strive to be the best at everything you take part in. To my little brother "B", you know what to do. Much love and always remember that learning is everything.

Cory Hubbard
"Mr. Air Jordan"

Last Will And Testaments

I Jasmine Houshyani, leave to Tomesha Wilder and Tashika Fort, the courage to stay strong and always keep your head up. To the upcoming Class of '06, accept nothing but the best. To the remainder of Southwest High School, I leave my ability to be a leader and not be a follower.

Jasmine Houshyani

I Shansia Oyemuga leave Kiara Mills and Asia Shambless my ability to continue to do the best at everything they pursue. To continue to have fun but also to do your work. To keep a strong head and a strong mind and also to keep you haters, your motivators, to do better.

I, Katrina Rice, leave to my cousin Danny D. Glover, friends Lute Worthy and Sierra Johnson my ability to get along with everybody I come in contact with. I would also like to thank Mr. Green Bell and Mrs. Griffin for never giving up on me.

To my family and friends that I'm leaving behind stay true to yourself and strive to be the best you can be and more. Much love to my favorite cousin Jennifer. One love from Mercedes AKA Meru.

I Kia Rene Scott leave to Theresa Miller my ability to always dress nice. to Jeremy Sanders I leave my ability to always keep a cool head and stay out of the news head. To Angel Smith and Tashika Fort stay cool and just chill in school.

I Mr. Senior, leave my ability to be athletic, smart, and best all around to Myotisha (cuz), Marcus andillery (D. F. Bros), Folbe, and Scooter. Stay funny Leke, A. White, and Sharmagne. To Kiara Brown I leave my ability to dance. Remember you are a sweetheart and you don't need a judge to determine that. Love y'all, William Bridges.

I Megan Whithy leave to Damon Whithy my ability to do what you got to do to get where you want to be. And to my baby Akem White my ability to think about things all the way through.

I, Sha Valerie Booker, leave to my fellow teammates the ability to stay focused and succeed. Always believe in your team and you'll go far.

I, Jocelyn Dumas, leave to Justin Dumas and Terry Moore my ability to pass my classes. I also leave to Hilary Moore, Quintavious Johnson, and Terrick Davis my ability to get along with others and to go to class. And last, the Flag team my ability to dance & be patient.

I, Reginald Deshaun Johnson, leave the Southwest Percussion section to Desmond Hopkins and to my cousin Danny Glover (Dirty Dan). Keep your head up and remember people will always have something negative to say about you, but it's how you react to it that will determine what kind of person you are.

I Tiffany Arnold leave to Janell Hanna the ability to do what she needs to do to succeed in life. I also leave the ability to have self-respect. Finally I leave the ability to be a head busta.

To Brittany Carroll and Travis Harvey. Even though I'm leaving you guys behind, keeps your head up and keep it pimpin. I'm going to miss y'all.

I Porcuthia LaVette Stalworth leave to all students at Southwest High School the power to go forth no matter what your friends, teachers, and people around you say. Be strong and stand tall.

I love, Shanta Bowden c/o '05"

Teacher of the Year 2003-2004

Gwendolyn V. Simmons
Math Dept. Chair

Gwendolyn V. Simmons, Math Teacher, was born in Macon, Georgia on March 16, 1951. Mrs. Simmons attended Ballard Hudson High School and Fort Valley State University. In 1975, she graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Education. Her work experiences include, Duresville Elementary, Ballard-A Junior High School, and Southwest Magnet High School and Law Academy. She has received many recognitions: 1987 Math Teacher of the Year, 1997 Mathematics Department Chair, 2001 Crystal Apple Award, and Southwest's 2003-2004 Teacher of the Year.

Patriot Faculty & Staff

Teacher of the Year 2004-2005

Jimmy L. Mills
Fine Arts Dept, Chair

Mr. Jimmy L. Mills, Jr. was educated in Bibb County Public School System where he attended B.S. Ingram Elementary School and graduated from Ballard Hudson High School in 1958. After graduating, he drove tractor trailer trucks for a year to save money for college. He entered Fort Valley State College in 1960 and attended for two years before being drafted into the U.S. Army, where he was in the 299th Army Band at Fort Hill, Texas. After successful years of duty in the army, he returned to Fort Valley State College and graduated in 1970. From 1970-1974, he taught physical education, music, and coached track at Bibb-Tech Vocational School. Afterwards, he transferred to Ballard Hudson and taught music from 1974-1998. In 1998, he became a PATRIOT serving as the choral director and Fine Arts Department Chairperson. Under his leadership, the Southwest Chorus has received numerous superior ratings at festivals.

Kelvin Harvey: Advisor/Teacher

The journey is now complete. It was filled with bumps, curves, hills, valleys, and zeniths. We have endured and persevered. We have overcome every obstacle placed in our way. We were fortunate to have a staff of dedicated workers. We learned and grew as a team. To Jameicia, the editor, thanks for the dedication to this project. Your hard work is appreciated by me, the staff, and most of all, the students of Southwest. To Danny, assistant editor, your eternal creativity is insurmountable. Save some for next year. To the rest of the staff, thanks for your assistance and ideas. Mrs. Mouton you are a life saver. I learned a lot from you. Your insight, wisdom, and patience were invaluable. To everyone else who assisted with this project 2005, thanks. You have truly embodied Southwest success.....whatever it takes.

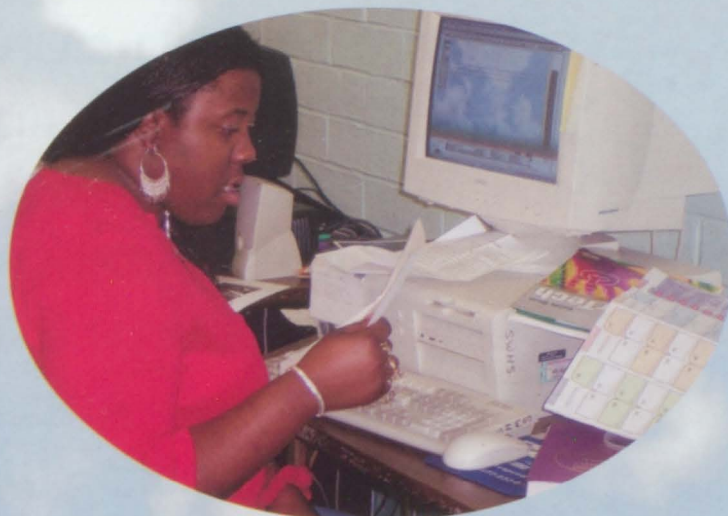

Gail R. Mouton: Advisor

"A picture paints a thousand words," stated one author. I believe this to the fullest. Throughout "Spirit" 2004-2005, you will view expressions of the Southwest Magnet High School and Law Academy Family. After venturing into another phase of exciting challenges, I must say that "when I put my trust and faith in God, all things are possible." At the onset of this endeavor I asked, "Is this job for me and if so, with whom?" Truly, I am thankful for Mr. Harvey who dedicated himself to this yearbook program, while addressing other responsibilities on campus. I thank the editor and assistant editor for their roles in completing this annual. "It takes a village to raise a child," and our yearbook staff along with the many Patriots' input has allowed us to present to all this 2004-2005 yearbook of which we hold dear. Truly, the yearbook staff has learned much and matured during the many ups and downs of this school year. To all, I give thanks! Most importantly, I would like to express my gratitude to Dr. Fowler for giving me the opportunity to serve Southwest Magnet High School and Law Academy as a yearbook advisor, for allowing me to tap into my gifts, and show trust in me as I interact with the students.

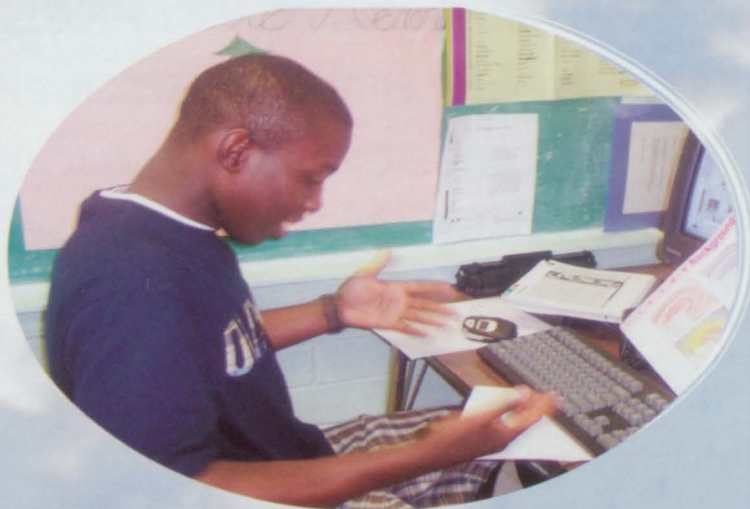

Jameicia Jordan : Editor

Whew!! It's finally over. All the hard work, the late days after school, the proofreading, and the making of assignments. But I greatly assure you it was worth every minute. We started off as a group of unorganized students and blossomed into a dedicated yearbook staff. I would like to thank my Assistant Editor Danny Glover for his support during the hard times, and also to our loyal Nortside H.S. Friend, Daniel Troutman. To one of my teachers (Dra. Dies) for understanding when I was stressed and pushing hard to meet deadlines. To Mr. Harvey and Mrs. Mouton thanks for your patience and guidance. We didn't always agree, but in true "PATRIOT SPIRIT", we got the job done. Thanks to my parents for picking me up late from school on yearbook days. And finally, thanks to the students of Southwest for your participation in the project, a picture is truly worth 2005 words and more. To the seniors good bye and good luck, to the underclassmen, see you next year, and to the class of 06 Get Ready!!!!

Danny Glover: Assistant Editor

In this school Yearbook, we present to our fellow students and community, a publication which we hope will be gratefully received, and will occupy a position of prominence in your dealings with any member of our class in future years. We have endeavored to put our best abilities and skills into these pages. If any errors are noted, we hope our friends and classmates will overlook them as this is our first attempt at such a stupendous undertaking. Mistakes are bound to occur, no matter how good intentions are. At this time, on behalf of the other members of the staff, I wish to heartily thank our advertisers for the generous and liberal support they have shown toward our publication.

PARTING SEEMS TO BE SUCH SWEET SORROW,
AS WE NOW END OUR SCHOOL YEAR. WE HAVE CONQUERED MANY CHALLENGES, WHILE
MANY STILL REMAIN. WE HAVE PAINTED PIC-
TURES WORTH WAITING FOR , AND PICTURES
THAT ARE WORTH 2005 WORDS. WE HAVE
PICTURED THIS, AND HAVE HEARD VOICES
FROM THE CROWD. WE HAVE LEARNED TO EXPECT THE UNEEXPECTED, AND HAVE CAP-
TURED MOMENTS. WE HAVE DOUBLE EXPO-
SURE, AND LOVING MEMORIES. WE HAVE SHOWCASED QUEENS AND SWEETHEARTS.
WE HAVE UNVEILED A PLETHORA OF STU-DENT LIFE FROM SPORTS TO ACADEMICS. WE HAVE WATCHED FRESHMAN GROW TO BECOME
TRUE HIGH SCHOOLERS, AND SOPHOMORES
BLOSSOM INTO JUNIORS. JUNIORS, NEXT
YEAR, WILL REPLACE THOSE SUPER SENIORS
THAT WILL LEAVE US THIS YEAR. WE EA-GERLY ANTICIPATE THOSE CHALLENGES THAT ARE PLACED BEFORE US. WE REVEL IN THE
THOUGHTS AND FOND MEMORIES OF OUR DAYS AS A PATRIOT. WE HOPE THAT WE HAVE ADEQUATELY, AND PURPOSEFULLY
PORTRAYED A PICTURE IN THE LIFE OF A
2005 PATRIOT.
